Dear Educator

We are delighted to showcase our learning resources that have been prescribed for Forms 1–5 in our 2016 Pearson Botswana Secondary Catalogue.

Forms 1–3
For Junior Secondary we present our two series – Longman in Action and Heinemann Exploring. These two series cover all the requirements of the Revised Junior Secondary School syllabi.

We aim to equip you with the tools you need to take your teaching to new heights and thus we have incorporated additional, value-adding tools such as FREE Key Concept Charts with our Student’s Books.

Forms 4–5
For Senior Secondary you have a number of prescribed local and international titles to choose from – assured in the knowledge that all the materials provide comprehensive coverage of the current curriculum requirements.

Leading the way in digital learning
The Teachers’ Virtual Resource Centre is where you can access downloadable materials, tests and tips for teachers as well as find links to great online resources for teachers.

We will be in touch
Our educational representatives will visit you during the year to introduce you to our titles and share with you the benefits and unique features of our leading courses.

If you would like to get in touch with us, you can reach us on:

Tel: +267 392 2969
Fax: +267 392 2682
Email: joe.chalashika@pearson.com

Thanks you for choosing Pearson Botswana for all your learning needs.

We wish you a happy and successful teaching year!

Yours in education,

The Pearson Botswana Team
Joe Chalashika
Managing Director

English Novels

One Bounce

Kop and Hale have been best friends since childhood. They grew up living next door to each other and spent many hours playing One Bounce together in the street. Now Kop has given up school to join the world of fast cars and crime. Hale knows his friend is getting himself into deep trouble. As events unfold, Hale starts to wonder about his own life.

Written by Andrew Ntsele and Janet Smith, this gripping book will motivate learners to study literature.

Stanza’s Soccer World Cup

Stanza dreams about making his debut at the 2010 Soccer World Cup. But he has to manage difficult players and a corrupt businessman, all the while fighting to keep his Diski Mini-League and his delivery job on track. Will his team make it? And will he finally get Bontle, the pretty kiosk operator, to notice him?

Written by Zachariah Rapola, the award-winning writer and film-maker, this book will grab the attention of even the most reluctant readers.

Stronger than the Storm

Thinasonke enjoys school life and the time she spends with her friends, but there are storm clouds on the horizon. Her brother, Mangaliso, hasn’t spoken since being detained in the 1980s and her best friend Thabang’s mother is ill with a mysterious disease. Over the next few months Thina’s life and the lives of those around her are forever changed by the AIDS epidemic. This moving story speaks to us all by dealing sensitively with issues such as sexual abuse and the secrecy surrounding AIDS.

The Billion Dollar Soccer Ball

Deo is a carefree, soccer-loving teenager. But on an ordinary day, the peace of his rural village is shattered and Deo loses his home, his family and his childhood. This gripping novel will take its readers on an emotional journey filled with action, despair and redemption.

Written by Michael Williams, the powerful writing will entice all readers to experience the satisfaction and joy of reading.

Song of Be

The Song of Be is a story of sadness, love, courage and dignity. Written for young people and masterfully told by award-winning novelist, Lesley Beake.

Chanda’s Secrets

Sixteen-year-old Chanda Kabelo, living in sub-Saharan Africa, knows only too well the truth behind the secret people are trying to keep hidden: that all around her people are dying because of AIDS. When her young step-sister dies, Chanda takes charge, organising the funeral for her grief-stricken mother. But Chanda remains a girl like any other, with hopes, worries and secrets of her own. Can she stay strong while helping her family to survive in the face of this tragedy?
English Drama

Backdrop
Backdrop is an exciting collection of plays selected to encourage readers to think about the world around them, and the different people that live in it. The book includes activities to enhance understanding, ideas on how to perform the plays, notes explaining the different styles and a glossary explaining unfamiliar words.

For the Stage
This collection of plays will give learners a chance to explore drama as a genre, perform plays and deepen their knowledge of African literature. Each play has been carefully adapted for the classroom from well-known short stories and autobiographies by leading African writers, including Njabulo Ndebele, Bessie Head, Chinua Achebe and Nelson Mandela.

Mirrors
Mirrors offers a wide range of short stories set in different contexts — from mystery to biography — with a mixture of southern African and international stories. The collection caters for varying language abilities.

Wordsmiths
Wordsmiths is a collection of twenty-four short stories, ranging from classical to modern, drawn from many countries, and representative of the best of the genre. Each story has been selected for its unique appeal and will provide enrichment and entertainment for all readers.

English Short Stories

Global tales
These sixteen tales by internationally known writers reveal the rich diversity of story writing in English today. They offer a variety of forms, settings, contexts, characters, themes and language in stories that are both accessible and challenging.

Setswana Drama

Boswa

Exciting features of this drama include: information on authors, setting, character and themes; summaries, revision sections and assessments; beautiful illustrations and a helpful glossary.

Kaine le Abele

Maranganela teng a bana ba mpa! A tlhotswe ke eng? Mme gone, a amagelesega go fitla kae?

What caused the deep hatred between two brothers who lived as exiles in Europe? This Setswana drama explores the story of their death.

Baswabile

Padi e e kwadiiwenka ka botswerere, e ratwa ke babadi ka bontsi.

A well-written novel that will resonate with all readers.

Maikotlhao

Thando o gana go ya seyanlo le monnawe monna wa gagwe yo o tshokafetseng. O nyalwa ke morui le fa lenyalo la sa ka la atega. O a ikothaya, mme o boela ga gab o simolola botshelo jo bošwa.

When Rasibintsoolo dies in a car accident, his younger brother decides to marry Thando, the grieving widow. But Thando refuses his proposal and decides to marry another man. It soon becomes apparent, however, that Thando is not solely in control of all her choices.

Written by K.S Naledi, this superb dramatic work was a winner of the MML 2008 Literature Award for Drama.

Leruarua

Exciting features of these short stories include: information on authors, setting, character and themes, summaries, revision sections and assessments, beautiful illustrations and a helpful glossary.
