CATALOGUE

2015
First launched over 50 years ago, the acclaimed African Writers Series has become a benchmark for African literature.

During this time, the series has been the vehicle for some of the most important writers that Africa has produced and has ensured an international voice for literary masters such as Chinua Achebe and Ngũgĩ wa Thiong’o.

Today, the series comprises over 70 titles by nearly 40 writers from different countries, ranging from stories and poetry to biographical writing and essays. Included in the series are the African Writers Series Classics, a selection of the most critically and widely acclaimed titles from this celebrated series.

The African Writers Series is suitable for anyone studying African Literature from the age of 14 and upwards.

A selection of titles are now available as e-books and can be downloaded from www.amazon.com.

For additional information about the African Writers Series visit our website at www.pearsonschoolsandfecolleges.co.uk/AWS

The Return of the Water Spirit

Luis R. Mitras (translator)
Angola
Winner of Angola’s National Literature Prize

In Angola in the late 1980s, a time of war, there are those who feel that the Marxist-orientated elite has allowed itself to be corrupted by nepotism and the worst kind of rampant capitalism. One day, a building in Kinaxixi Square collapses unexpectedly, harming no-one. An ancient African water spirit has returned to reclaim the land.
