Dear Teacher

We are delighted to showcase our excellent educational material and learning products in our Pearson Botswana 2013 Junior Secondary Catalogue.

Our materials
Our two most popular series – Longman in Action and Heinemann Exploring covers all the requirements of the Revised Junior Secondary School syllabi.

Longman in Action is your complete classroom solution with components such as the Student’s Book, Key Concept Charts, Grammar Handbooks, Teacher’s Guides and Test CDs. You are now able to spend more time helping your students to learn and excel in every exam.

Similarly the Heinemann Exploring series equips you with the tools to take your teaching to new heights by offering students more extension exercises and advanced explanations.

Our Online offering
Don’t forget about the Teachers’ Virtual Resource Centre where you can access downloadable materials, tests and tips for teachers as well as find links to great online resources and websites for teachers.

We’ll be in touch
During the course of the year our educational representatives will be in touch to introduce you to our new titles, and to elaborate on the features and benefits of our leading courses.

If you would like to get in touch with us, you can reach us on +267 392 2969 or email on joec@pearson.co.bw

Thank you for choosing Pearson Botswana for all you educational material needs.

We wish you a happy and successful year in teaching in 2013.

Yours in education,
The Pearson Botswana Team

One Bounce
Kop and Hale have been best friends since childhood. They grew up living next door to each other and spent many hours playing One Bounce together in the street. Now Kop has given up school to join the world of fast cars and crime. Hale knows his friend is getting himself into deep trouble. As events unfold, Hale starts to wonder about his own life.
Written by Andrew Ntsele and Janet Smith, this gripping book will motivate learners to study literature.

The Billion Dollar Soccer Ball
Deo is a carefree, soccer-loving teenager. But on an ordinary day, the peace of his rural village is shattered and Deo loses his home, his family and his childhood. This gripping novel will take its readers on an emotional journey filled with action, despair and redemption.
Written by Michael Williams, the powerful writing will entice all readers to experience the satisfaction and joy of reading.

Stanza’s Soccer World Cup
Stanza dreams about making his debut at the 2010 Soccer World Cup. But he has to manage difficult players and a corrupt businessman, all the while fighting to keep his Diski Mini-League and his delivery job on track. Will his team make it? And will he finally get Bontle, the pretty kiosk operator, to notice him?
Written by Zachariah Rapola, the award-winning writer and film-maker, this book will grab the attention of even the most reluctant readers.

Song of Be
The Song of Be is a story of sadness, love, courage and dignity. Written for young people and masterfully told by award-winning novelist, Lesley Beake.

Stronger Than the Storm
Thinasonke enjoys school life and the time she spends with her friends, but there are storm clouds on the horizon. Her brother, Mangaliso, hasn’t spoken since being detained in the 1980s and her best friend Thabang’s mother is ill with a mysterious disease. Over the next few months Thina’s life and the lives of those around her are forever changed by the AIDS epidemic. This moving story speaks to us all by dealing sensitively with issues such as sexual abuse and the secrecy surrounding AIDS.

Chanda’s Secrets
Sixteen-year-old Chanda Kabelo, living in sub-Saharan Africa, knows only too well the truth behind the secret people are trying to keep hidden: that all around her people are dying because of AIDS. When her young stepsister dies, Chanda takes charge, organising the funeral for her grief-stricken mother. But Chanda remains a girl like any other, with hopes, worries and secrets of her own. Can she stay strong while helping her family to survive in the face of this tragedy?
English Drama

Backdrop

Backdrop is an exciting collection of plays selected to encourage readers to think about the world around them, and the different people that live in it. The book includes activities to enhance understanding, ideas on how to perform the plays, notes explaining the different styles and a glossary explaining unfamiliar words.

For the Stage

This collection of plays will give learners a chance to explore drama as a genre, perform plays and deepen their knowledge of African literature. Each play has been carefully adapted for the classroom from well-known short stories and autobiographies by leading African writers, including Njabulo Ndebele, Bessie Head, Chinua Achebe and Nelson Mandela.

Mirrors

Mirrors offers a wide range of short stories set in different contexts — from mystery to biography — with a mixture of southern African and international stories. The collection caters for varying language abilities.

Wordsmiths

Wordsmiths is a collection of twenty-four short stories, ranging from classical to modern, drawn from many countries, and representative of the best of the genre. Each story has been selected for its unique appeal and will provide enrichment and entertainment for all readers.

English Short Stories

Global tales

These sixteen tales by internationally known writers reveal the rich diversity of story writing in English today. They offer a variety of forms, settings, contexts, characters, themes and language in stories that are both accessible and challenging.
